Defining privacy rights on social media and penalizing the offense of cyber bullying.

AN ACT

Section 1. This act shall be known as “Privacy Rights and No More Cyber Bullying Act”.

Section 2. This would amend the Pennsylvania Crimes Code to define privacy rights that minors (defined as under 18 years of age) have on social media outlets.

Section 3. This would further define “cyber bullying” as the intent of a minor to harass, annoy or intimidate another minor.

Section 4. Penalties for this crime would result in a third degree misdemeanor, with a third or subsequent offense constituting a second degree misdemeanor.

Section 5. Effective Date: This act shall take effect on January 1, 2022.
